APPLICATION FOR SANCTIONING

These guidelines must be followed when making an application for SLBS sanctioning:

1. The contest organizer must read and return the first two pages of the sanctioning packet, thereby acknowledging that they have read, understand and agree to all of the commitments they are making by applying with the SLBS for their contest to be sanctioned. If no contest organizer is designated at the time the application is submitted, the contest sponsor will be the contest organizer.
2. The contest sponsor and/or contest organizer must apply for sanctioning to the SLBS a minimum of 90 days prior to the proposed date of the contest.
3. When submitting an application for sanctioning, the contest sponsor and contest organizer agree to follow all SLBS rules, regulations and judging procedures.
4. Upon approval, the contest sponsor and contest organizer agree to follow all SLBS sanctioning requirements; including payment of all fees/expenses and prize money as outlined in Section III.
5. First year contests and returning contests that have moved to a new location may be subject to have the contest area inspected by up to two (2) SLBS officials prior to the contest.
6. The SLBS will make every effort to accommodate the contest date requested by contest sponsor and/or contest organizer. When sanctioning contest dates, the SLBS will consider a variety of factors to assure that the Contest and the cook teams both have a positive experience. Those factors will include, but not be limited to; locations of other cook-offs (SLBS and Non-SLBS) on the same date and how the requested contest date fits into the SLBS calendar

REQUIREMENTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE CONTEST ORGANIZER

UPON SANCTIONING

Once the SLBS agrees to sanction an event, the following requirements and responsibilities must be adhered to by the contest organizer and contest sponsor.

1. All sanctioning fees must be received by the SLBS (sent to the address at the top of the sanctioning packet) at least 30 days prior to the contest date. If a contest grows beyond the original expectation, any additional fees will be due to the SLBS on the day before the contest.
2. Contest sponsor and/or contest organizer must submit proof of liability insurance of not less than $1,000,000. This proof of insurance must:
 - a. Come directly from the insurance carrier and,
 - b. Name the SLBS as an Additional Insured and
 - c. Be received by the SLBS no later than 30 days prior to the contest (sent to the address at the top of the sanctioning packet)
 - d. Be in force from the day and time the first team arrives at the contest site through the day and time the last team leaves the contest site
3. Contest sponsor and/or contest organizer must submit a Letter of Guarantee to the SLBS (sent to the address at the top of the sanctioning packet) from the contest sponsor or underwriter guaranteeing that that all prize money presented on contest application (developed for cook teams to use to enter the contest) and advertising will be available and distributed at time of awards. This letter must be received by the SLBS no later than 30 days prior to the contest.
4. Failure to make payment of the sanctioning fees, provide proof of liability insurance or the Letter of Guarantee by the stated deadlines may result in SLBS sanctioning being rescinded along with forfeiture of all fees paid to the SLBS.
5. Any checks awarded must be made payable to either the head cook of the team as written on the team application, with the payee left blank, or to an alternate entity as indicated on the team application. The checks must be negotiable at time of presentation.
6. The SLBS recognizes teams finishing in the top 10 in each category. Cash awards are required for the top 5 in each category, but are encouraged for as many places as possible and physical awards (ribbons, trophies, etc.) are suggested for the top 10 places.
7. The contest sponsor and/or contest organizer agree to pay any and all applicable federal, state, and local taxes, fees, licenses, regulations, and permits arising from execution of the contest.

8. All team application forms for SLBS sanctioned BBQ contests must be reviewed and approved by the SLBS lead contest ambassador prior to printing, publishing, or mailing.
9. Mandatory elements of the Team Contest Application form include:
 - a. The SLBS logo and a clear and noticeable statement that the event is sanctioned by the SLBS
 - b. Information and the expectation that at least the Team Captain/Pitmaster of the team must be a current member of the SLBS. Please provide information directing them to the SLBS website to join and obtain a SLBS Member Number.
 - c. A blank for the Team Captain/Pitmaster to fill in their SLBS Team Number or their SLBS Member Number if they are a new team or do not know their team number.
 - d. A statement of turn in times will be included on the application.
 - e. The dollar amount (to be determined by the Contest Organizer) that must be paid by the cook teams to enter the Contest, regardless of the number of categories the team plans to cook.
 - f. Note: Contest Organizers may offer a discount for early registration if they choose to. Some teams prefer to pay or register electronically if that option is available.
 - g. Detailed listing of payout for Grand, Reserve Grand and for five(5) places in each category.
 - h. Contest organizer shall make available to the SLBS, at no cost, a 10X10 space to have our booth setup to sell memberships, cookbooks and other items.
10. The contest organizer and the contest sponsor agree that the official SLBS logo will be used on any and all promotional and advertising material including but not limited to, contest application, posters, banners, and flyers. The SLBS will be announced as the official sanctioning body in any and all television, radio, and internet, Social Media outlets or print reports.
11. The contest organizer agrees to pay all contest sanctioning expenses, as well as specified expenses for official SLBS representatives present at the contest (see Section IV).
12. The contest organizer assumes responsibility for recruiting cook teams for the contest.
13. The contest organizer agrees to provide the SLBS with a list of all teams that includes the name, member number, team name and number (if available), phone number, e-mail address and any other pertinent data for inclusion in the SLBS scoring database. This is to be provided the day after registration closes (1 week prior to the event).
14. The contest organizer agrees to close registration 1 week prior to the event to ensure adequate resources are scheduled for the event.
15. In the event of a serious problem before or during the contest, except in matters of public safety, the contest organizer shall first contact the SLBS designated lead ambassador to develop a plan to resolve the problem and a specific communication strategy. It will be the contest organizer's responsibility to relay information regarding the problem to the cook teams and other impacted parties.

16. The contest organizer agrees to provide all specified materials designated by the SLBS (see Appendix A).
17. The contest organizer may not cook as part of a cook team or judge SLBS categories at their contest.
18. In the event of cancellation of the contest:
 - a. The contest sponsor and contest organizer shall immediately notify the SLBS representatives by telephone, or email that the contest has been canceled.
 - b. The contest sponsor and contest organizer shall then make contact with all of the cook teams and judges and notify them of the cancellation.
 - c. All entry fees paid by the cook teams shall be reimbursed to the cook teams by the contest sponsor and contest organizer within 15 days of the cancellation.
 - d. The contest organizer shall submit a written statement to the SLBS within 15 days of the cancellation indicating the reason for the cancellation and stating that all entry fees paid by the cook teams have been refunded in full. The organizer(s) will forfeit all sanctioning fees paid to the SLBS.
19. The Contest organizer agrees that the priority categories are the officially sanctioned entries of Chicken and Pork Ribs.
20. Contest organizers are free to add additional ancillary categories to their contests. Additional guidance regarding ancillary categories includes:
 - a. The SLBS has the expertise and resources that may be available to assist with ancillary categories. Access to SLBS expertise and resources for ancillary categories must be coordinated through the designated lead contest representative.
 - b. Ancillary turn in times must be coordinated with the SLBS lead ambassador to assure that there are no conflicts with the priority entries, previously indicated.
21. The Contest organizer agrees to review the items in Appendix A (Organizer's Check List) and Appendix C (Suggested Contest Schedule), with the lead contest representative a minimum of one week before the contest date and to deliver all of the items that determined to be required by the contest ambassador.
22. The SLBS reserves the right to waive or modify any requirement, responsibility, or guideline. Formal notification of a waiver or modification of any kind will be transmitted in writing (letter or email) by the designated lead representative to the contest organizer.
23. The advertised cash payout for a contest is a significant factor impacting the ability of a contest to attract cook team participation. It is never acceptable for a contest to pay out less than the advertised purse. The purse must be advertised on the flyer and/or application a minimum of 60 days prior to the contest date.

Note – Provided that the funds are on hand, it is acceptable for a contest to announce as late as at the cook team meeting that the actual payout will be more than what was previously advertised.

24. Attend at least one prior SLBS event as an “Organizer in Training” to be singed off by the ambassador of the event attended.

Backyard-Series Sanctioning

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE SLBS TO THE SANCTIONED CONTEST

Within a week of sanctioning an event or an alternative date negotiated with the contest organizer, the SLBS will supply the following to the contest organizer:

1. The name, cell phone number and email address for the SLBS designated lead ambassador for the event. At that time, the SLBS designated lead ambassador for the event will become the official liaison between the SLBS and the contest organizer.
2. A file with the graphic of the SLBS logo.
3. The SLBS will add the Contest to the SLBS Website and to its social media properties, and will include appropriate links to other websites as requested by the Contest Organizer.
4. The SLBS will completely manage the judging applications, registration, and selection process for SLBS Sanctioned Categories.
5. Upon agreement between the designated SLBS Lead ambassador and the Contest Organizer, the SLBS will assist the Contest Organizer with the management of registering and selecting judges for ancillary events.

Backyard-Series Sanctioning

SANCTIONING FEES AND EXPENSES

The contest sponsor and contest organizer agree to pay the following fees and expenses:

1. Application fee of $50.00. This application fee due when the application is submitted. The application fee is non-refundable.
2. In addition to the $50.00 non-refundable application fee, an SLBS sanctioning fee of $100.00 is due to the SLBS at least 30 days before the event. This is a total of $150.00.
3. The standard sanctioning fee and number of designated SLBS representatives for contests are scheduled is set as follows:
 - a Sanctioning Fee, $100.00 (paid at least 30 days before the contest date)
 - b Team of the Year Fee $10 per team (payable by the end of the contest day)
 - c Events may have 1 or 2 designated representatives depending on the event size:
4. Additional Fees – a fee of $25 per category applies to all contests having ancillary categories to be judged by the SLBS. Ancillary categories are those outside the standard four meats, including dessert, sauce, etc.

The SLBS Ambassadors' Expenses for out-of-town travel over 100 miles will be an additional $200 (unless a lesser amount is negotiated with the Ambassador) to cover travel, meal, and lodging expenses.

The SLBS reserves the right to negotiate payment of additional expenses for contests scheduled outside the immediate St Louis MO area. Payment of any additional fees and expenses may be negotiated in advance by the prospective contest organizer and the president of the SLBS in advance of formally returning this application packet with the non-refundable $50.00 Application fee.

5. In the event of contest cancellation by the contest organizer(s), all paid fees and expenses shall be non-refundable.
6. In the event that the SLBS withdraws it's sanctioning of the contest, previously paid sanctioning fees will be refunded within ten (10) working days. The $50.00 application fee is non-refundable.

“Save the Date”

For existing contests to “Save their Date” they must have their application and application fee submitted prior to December 1st. The contest will be automatically approved as long as all previous fees are paid in full unless there is previous directive of the board of directors that removed sanctioning of the contest. The contest would be posted with “Save the Date” unless a flyer has been submitted to post.

New contests that do not conflict with an existing contest must submit their application and application fee. The contest will be considered by the board at the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors. Upon approval by the board, “Save the Date” will be posted unless a flyer has been submitted to post.

New contests that do pose a potential conflict with an existing contest date for the next year will be held and not considered until after the December 1st date.
